

This Statement of Commitment reflects our dedication to fostering a culture where children feel safe, supported, and empowered to reach their full potential. We are committed to continuously improving our practices, regularly reviewing our approach, and ensuring child safety remains a top priority.

Australian Anatolian Community Service's Commitment to

Child Safety

TRAINING

We are committed to providing ongoing training and education to staff, volunteers, and relevant stakeholders on child protection policies, procedures, and best practices.

SAFE SPACES

We are committed to providing and maintaining physically and emotionally safe environments for children across all our facilities, events, and activities, free from abuse, neglect, or exploitation.

COMMUNICATION

We promote a culture of open communication and encourage the reporting of any concerns related to child safety.

At Australian Anatolian Community Services, we are committed to providing a safe and secure environment for all children.

We have zero tolerance for child abuse.

We believe every child has the right to grow, learn, and thrive free from harm, and we prioritise their safety and wellbeing in all our programs and activities.

COMMUNITY

We actively engage with parents, guardians, and the wider community to support a collaborative approach to child safety, valuing their input to strengthen our practices.

WELLBEING

We prioritise the safety, protection, and wellbeing of children above all else. Our policies and procedures ensure a safe and secure environment for every child in our programs.

SCREENING

We will implement comprehensive screening processes for all individuals in our organisation who may have contact with children, including employees, volunteers, contractors, and anyone whose role involves interacting with children.
